Get more from life: The new PartyLite Autumn Catalogue 2017

PartyLite starts off in August 2017 with 20 Find Your Signature autumn and base fragrances, some of which are new, and which can be combined to form 190 fragrance compositions. The market-leading direct sales company for scented candles, room fragrances and decorative accessories complemented its fragrance collection for Autumn 2017 with accessories that highlight the nuances of the seasonal color palette and support the prominent metallic trends with cool green and dazzling blue. Ultra-modern and effortlessly elegant. A unique luxurious look. Along with the fragrances and accessories, the new PartyLite catalog in magazine form also reveals the opportunities for building a career with PartyLite - along with a job and family or even full-time. Find Your Signature. At home. In life.

Find Your Signature – Tell your Style Story

Each of the collections has been designed carefully to tell a unique story, your story. It all begins with the superb PartyLite fragrances, which become an experience in combination with brand new trends, leaving every home radiant. Make your own story with creations matching your style that express your individuality.

The new Autumn trends revolve around the diversity from forests and nature – unconventional materials meet original designs to reflect the color and fragrance nuances of Autumn. The themes inspired by plants and wild animals in muted natural colors are in contrast to the textured metal, giving rise to a timeless elegance.
